Stipulation and Consent of Sandra Reeder

Defendant Sandra Reeder ("SReeder") hereby stipulates, consents and agrees to the following:

1. SReeder admits service upon her of the Summons and Complaint of the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") herein and admits the jurisdiction of this Court over her and over the subject matter of this action.
2. SReeder acknowledges she has entered into this Stipulation and Consent ("Consent") voluntarily and represents that no promises of immunity, threats or assurances have been made by the Commission or by any of its members, officers, agents or representatives to induce her to enter into this Consent.
3. SReeder consents, without admitting or denying any of the allegations of the Complaint, except as to jurisdiction as noted herein, to the entry of the Final

17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") [15 U.S.C. §§ 77e(a), 77e(c), and 77q(a)], and of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 [15 U.S.C. §78j(b)], and Rule 10b-5 thereunder [17 C.F.R. §240.10b-5], and orders other equitable relief as set forth therein.

4. SReeder waives the entry of findings of facts and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

5. SReeder waives any right she may have to appeal from entry of the Final Judgment.

6. SReeder understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegations in the Complaint or order for proceedings" as set forth in 17 C.F.R. §202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, SReeder agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, SReeder hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action. If SReeder breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this case to its active docket. Nothing in this provision affects SReeder's testimonial obligations or right to take legal positions in litigation in which the Commission is not a party.

7. Consistent with provisions of 17 C.F.R. §202.5(f), SReeder waives any claim of Double Jeopardy based upon the settlement of this proceeding, including the imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein. SReeder acknowledges that this Consent and the Final Judgment do not bar the institution or prosecution against SReeder of any other action, civil, criminal or administrative, arising as a result of the matters alleged in the Complaint.

8. SReeder acknowledges that she has been advised and understands that the Court may adjudge her to be in civil or criminal contempt if she commits any violation of the Final Judgment entered pursuant to this Consent.

9. SReeder agrees that the Court will retain jurisdiction over her and over the subject matter of this action in order to implement and carry out the terms of all orders and decrees that may be entered herein and to entertain any suitable application or motion by the parties for additional relief within the jurisdiction of this Court.

10. SReeder agrees that she will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waives any objection she may have based thereon.

11. SReeder agrees that this Consent shall be filed with the Final Judgment and will be incorporated into the Final Judgment with the same force and effect as if fully set forth therein.

12. SReeder agrees that the Final Judgment may be presented by the Commission to the Court for signature and entry without further notice.

13. SReeder agrees to execute and return to the Commission an Acknowledgment of Service upon its receipt of the Final Judgment after entry by the Court.
