ORDER

Michael J. Quilling, as Receiver for Sardaukar Holdings and related entities, has filed a motion to sell 2 million shares of common stock in moondoggie technologies, inc. ("moondoggie").¹ [Doc. #180]. According to the Receiver, moondoggie has agreed to pay $200,000 for the stock, which was purchased by Bradley C. Stark for $2 million in March 2005. Although the proposed resale price is only 10% of the original value of the stock, the Receiver believes that this offer is in the best interest of the Receivership Estate because moondoggie is in poor financial condition and there is no readily available public market for the sale of its stock. The Securities and Exchange Commission, through its regional counsel, and the other parties to this action agree to the proposed sale.

The Receiver is ordered to post a copy of his motion and this order on his website, www.secreceiver.com. Appropriate links to the court's docket shall be provided to users of the website. Any interested party who objects to the proposed sale of the vehicle must file written

If any party desires a hearing on the motion, a written request for hearing must accompany any objections. Unless a hearing is requested, the court intends to rule on the motion after the expiration of the deadline for filing objections based on the written submissions of the parties.

SO ORDERED.
