14. During the period covered by this Application, the Receiver has incurred fees and expenses with respect to his activities as Receiver and with respect to QSCL as to these proceedings on a monthly basis as follows:

Month	Fees	Expenses
May 2004	$27,511.00	$316.84
June 2004	$7,881.50	$360.05
July 2004	$18,594.50	$122.69
August 2004	$15,184.00	$74.66
September 2004 ¹	$7,314.00	$706.62
TOTAL:	$76,485.00	$1,580.86

¹ Starting September 1, 2004 the Receiver created a separate billing file for International Investment Group (IIG) so that fees and expenses which relate to those funds and claims (pursuant to Court Order of April 20, 2004) can be tracked separately and paid out of those funds. Accordingly, if the requested fees and expenses are paid, $595.00 will be paid out of the segregated IIG funds.

15. Exhibit "A," which is attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference for all purposes conveys the following information for the time period of May 1, 2004 through September 30, 2004: (a) the number of hours worked by each attorney and staff member on a particular day, (b) the manner and type of work performed by each attorney and staff member, (c) the customary billing rate for each person rendering service in this matter, and (d) the monetary value assigned to each task performed by a given attorney and/or staff member. Each of the invoices attached hereto as Exhibit "A" reflect aggregate expenses by category during a given month.

JOHNSON FACTORS

16. In support of this request for allowance of compensation and reimbursement of expenses, the Receiver and QSCL respectfully direct this Court's attention to those factors generally considered by courts in awarding compensation to professionals for services performed in connection with the administration of a receivership estate. As stated by the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in Migis v. Pearle Vision, Inc., 135 F.3d 1041, 1047 (5th Cir. 1998) "The calculation of attorneys fees involves a well-established process. First, the court calculates a 'lodestar' fee by multiplying the reasonable number of hours expended on the case by the reasonable hourly rates for the participating lawyers (cite omitted). The court then considers whether the lodestar figure should be adjusted upward or downward depending on the circumstances of the case. In making a lodestar adjustment the court should look at twelve factors, known as the Johnson factors, after Johnson v. Georgia Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714 (5th Cir. 1974)." The Johnson factors have been expressly adopted by the Fourth Circuit. See, Barber v. Kimbrell's Inc., 577 F.2d 216, 226 (4th Cir. 1978). Those factors as applied to the services rendered in this case by the Receiver and QSCL are addressed below.

(a) The Time and Labor Required. The Receiver and QSCL respectfully refer the Court's attention to Exhibit "A" which details the involvement of the Receiver and QSCL's attorneys in this case during the three month period covered by this Application during which a total of more than 487 hours of attorney, paraprofessional and Receiver time have been expended.

(b) The Novelty and Difficulty of the Questions. Many of the tasks reflected in Exhibit "A" involved factual and legal questions which were of substantial complexity.

(c) The Skill Requisite to Perform the Service. The Receiver believes that the services performed in this case have required individuals possessing considerable experience in asset seizure, tracing and liquidation. Both the Receiver and QSCL have considerable experience in such areas.

(d) The Preclusion of Other Employment Due to Acceptance of the Case. The Receiver and QSCL have not declined any representation solely because of their services as Receiver and counsel for the Receiver.

(e) The Customary Fee. The hourly rates sought herein are commensurate with the rates charged by other practitioners of similar experience levels in the Western District of North Carolina. During the course of these proceedings, the following lawyers at QSCL have performed legal services on behalf of the Receiver with respect to these proceedings: Mike Quilling ($350.00 per hour), licensed in Texas in 1982 and Texas Board Certified in Business Bankruptcy Law and Civil Trial Law; Dee Raibourn ($190.00 per hour) licensed in Texas in 1998; Mary Vance ($200.00 per hour) licensed in Texas in 1983; and Marcie Schout ($175.00 per hour) licensed in Texas in 2000.

(f) Whether the Fee is Fixed or Contingent. The Receiver's and QSCL's fees are fixed insofar as monies exist by way of Receivership Assets from which to pay such fees. Payment of such fees, however, is subject to Court approval.

(g) Time Limitations Imposed by the Client or Other Circumstances. The time requirements during the period covered by this Application have been normal.

(h) The Amount Involved and the Results Obtained. The Receiver has been charged with the task of tracing the origin of in excess of $18.8 million of seized funds, developing a claims process and making recommendations to the Court regarding distributions. During the period covered by this Application the Receiver has made considerable progress in this regard. The Receiver has also addressed the following matters:

- (1) Handled Motion to Disallow Claims;
- (2) Handled distributions of funds to claimants;
- (3) Continued tracing efforts;
- (4) Continued efforts to locate investors;
- (5) Handled voluminous claims;
- (6) Handled matters relating to funds seized in Norway;
- (7) Communicated with numerous investors; and
- (8) Continued website updates.

(i) The Experience, Reputation, and Ability of the Attorneys. QSCL has several attorneys who specialize exclusively in the practice of civil trial law. The practice of those attorneys regularly includes the representation of bankruptcy trustee and receivers. The reputation of QSCL's attorneys is recognized and respected in their community in Texas.

(j) The Undesirability of the Case. The representation of the Receiver incident to this case has not been undesirable.

(k) The Nature and Length of the Professional Relationship with the Client. QSCL did not represent the Receiver in these proceedings prior to being retained in these proceedings.

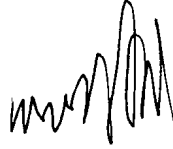

(1) Award in Similar Cases. QSCL believes that the fees requested in this case are less than or equal to those which have been awarded in similar cases in this District.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Receiver and QSCL request that this Court approve all of the fees and expenses as set forth herein and for such other and further relief, general or special, at law or in equity, to which the Receiver and QSCL may show themselves justly entitled.

Respectfully submitted,
